ArtReach: Project America 2- Day Workshop For Military Personnel & Veterans

Date and Time:

Friday and Saturday, April 15 - 16, 2011 8:30 am – 4:30 pm

Location:

Conant Performing Arts Center on Oglethorpe University Campus
4484 Peachtree Road NE
Atlanta, GA 30319
Rehearsal Hall A

Who should attend:

This workshop is for active duty Military Personnel and Veterans who are experiencing stress (including transitional stress, combat stress, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, mild Traumatic Brain Injury, and/or other service related injuries). Any active duty Military Personnel or Veteran may attend upon clinician referral or self-referral. This workshop is limited to first time and/or second time attendance to an ArtReach: Project America workshop. Military Clinicians or Civilian Clinicians working with Military Personnel may attend with prior clearance (note very limited space for clinicians).

Workshop Description/Goals/Leaders:

Two full days of participation in group process using the therapeutic creative arts (drama, art, movement, music, writing) led by a Training Team of ArtReach creative arts therapists, mental health professionals, and Veteran-Mentor. The goals of the workshop are to promote connection to one's creative Self that is often shelved or neglected during military service, and/or numbed or disconnected as a result of PTSD and/or mild TBI, and reconnection with others in the "safe space" of a small group setting. During this group, participants will learn and experience techniques which can help in dealing with stress and transitions. Attendance at both days is required.

Registration Costs:

Active Duty/ Veteran registration is $50- Includes lunch, refreshments, art supplies, and a certificate of attendance. Contact office if cost alone would preclude participation; limited scholarships are available for Active Duty Military Personnel.

Clinicians registration is $185 - Includes lunch, refreshments, art supplies and a certificate of attendance.

Pre-payment is required (last day to pay is Tuesday, April 12). There is a 72-hour cancellation policy. Any cancellations that are less than 72-hour are non-refundable.

Registration Payment Options:
